

Dear _____,

Please find attached a copy of the final documents you signed together with a notarized copy of your MSA.

I submitted your Judgment packet to the court on _____. It can take _____ months for the Judgment to be entered. Here
S what to expect next:

_____, you will receive 2 pieces of mail from the court, a form FL-165 which means your time to Respond is up and the court can proceed with an uncontested divorce with an Agreement, and the FL-190 which states that Judgment has been entered. The actual Judgment will be sent to my office within a week or so of you receiving the FL-190.

_____, you will also receive the form FL-190 from the court, which states that Judgment has been entered. As soon as I receive the final divorce order I will scan it to you, or if you like, you can make arrangements to stop by and pick up your Judge stamped copy at my office

Please note: All financial information you exchanged during the discovery process related to your assets, debts, including all tax returns is in your hands, and I suggest you keep that for your own records so you remain certain there were no missed assets or debts. I shred, and/or clear from my computer all of the financial information you shared in this process to secure your privacy.

The MSA requires that you complete the following tasks:

1. Set up a direct deposit for payment of child (and spousal) support;
2. Expenses for the children's uninsured medical and dental should be reconciled monthly, (see form FL-192 attached to your Judgment);
3. You agreed to _____ extra-curricular expenses;
4. Life insurance;
5. Transfer of titles;
6. QDRO;
7. ...

It's been my pleasure to work with you through what might have otherwise been a very costly and conflicted process. I wish you both all the very best. I will be back in touch with you as soon as I receive your divorce order.
